

Why You Don't Riot

Benjamin Zephaniah

2011

You don't riot if you have a nice job and a home to come to at night.
You don't riot if you're well fed and unemployment doesn't pressure your head.
You don't riot if you live in the city but have a country cottage with a view so pretty.
You don't riot. Riot happen too late. And that's South Africa, Britain is great.
