Whoever you vote for, we will be #ungovernable!

ANIKA

7 August 2021

Going to the polls always means choosing the lesser of two evils. We don't want to choose evils!

For centuries or even millennia, we have stood up for the equality of all living things, for the freedom not to harm ourselves and others, for fraternity worldwide!

Freedom cannot be chosen, freedom has always been the freedom of those who take it. No matter which government plays its power games, we do not let ourselves be governed!

We don't let ourselves be banned from saving people on the high seas any more than we let ourselves be banned from creating places where people can get access and care, regardless of their purchasing power.

We fight for a good climate of tomorrow, so that all those who come after us have a chance to live on a planet that we are willing to protect.

We do not ask about origin, who you are is important, where you were born is not. The nation is against us, the nationality is only a game of the rulers to divide and disempower us.

We empower ourselves, against any authority!

We are paramedics, authors, lawyers, musicians, workers, anarchists, educators, artists, freelancers and many more!

The ruling conditions are against you. If you are not useful to them, you will also be sorted out hard.

We do not vote for the tyrants and their systems, for capitalism and its destructive power, for the authoritarian state and its oppression. We vote all this out and fight for a world society without domination of people over people!

For a world in which it is worth to live. For a future full of meaning and valuable experiences.

No government can ever bring us freedom, we can never be absorbed in their prefabricated identity structures. Only under.

Who ever you Vote for, we will be #ungovernable! No matter who we vote for, we will remain ungovernable!
