

Liberté – Egalité – Fraternité

Ravachol

1880[ish]

Children of the same fatherland
Can't you hear the voice
That cries out for democracy.
To arms against the bourgeoisie.
Let's fight for independence
And for sacred liberty,
Through the efforts of our might
Let's transform society.
Why, on this earth,
Do we betray ourselves
When we should love each other as brothers?
Our masters cause disunion;
Let's chase away authoritarian chiefs
Full of hatred and iniquity.
Peoples, let's suppress our borders
To the cry of "Long Live Equality!"
In order to establish equality
You need a heart full of hate.
Reduce the bourgeoisie to dust
Them instead of war
We'll have brotherhood.

The Anarchist Library
Anti-Copyright

Ravachol
Liberté – Egalité – Fraternité
1880[ish]

Jean Maitron, Le Mouvement Anarchiste en France, Vol 1. Paris, Maspero, 1975
Source: Jean Maitron, Le Mouvement Anarchiste en France, Vol 1. Paris, Maspero, 1975
Translated: for marxists.org by Mitch Abidor; CopyLeft: Creative Commons (Attribute & ShareAlike) marxists.org 2006. For a period in the 1880's Ravachol earned his living as a musician. A contemporary passed down the lyrics to one of his songs.

theanarchistlibrary.org